Obituary—Robert E. French

About two years ago Robert E. French closed up his business affairs at Whiting and returned to his old home country at Hartland and has since lived with his sisters, Mrs. Ella Martin of Hartland and Mrs. Clara Dole of Woodstock. Early in October he returned to visit his old friends in this section and drove up in his new automobile to Oscar Hornbeck's in Orwell, where he was taken sick and remained for several days. He was preparing to leave for Whiting on his return trip and was taken suddenly worse and died the next morning, October 14. Mr. French was sixty-six years of age and had lived here about twenty years. After experiencing the ups and downs of a drover's life in Whiting he ultimately prospered and for several years conducted an extensive business in buying stock throughout western Vermont and in some sections of New York. He was a liberal buyer and in many ways a great help to the farmers in this section in marketing their stock and providing them with dairy cows on rent. Mr. French was associated for many years with Bowman Crosby of Whiting who still continues the business here also W. W. Williams of Whiting, O. Hornbeck of Orwell, L. Nichols of Brandon, F. Hendee of Pittsford, Mr. Hooker of Goshen, Mr. Piper of Middlebury and others who will miss him not only as a business associate of good judgment but as a kindly friend and neighbor. Generous and genial, he made many friends, and many of these remembered him by their presence on the day of his funeral at the Old White Church in Whiting where an impressive service rendered by Rev. H. C. Newell of Middlebury was listened to by a large audience. The floral offerings were beautiful. The funeral was in charge of A. J. Blackmer of Middlebury.

D. A. R. Meeting

There was a pleasant meeting of the Mary Baker Allen Chapter, D. A. R., at the Chapter house last Saturday with about thirty members and guests in attendance. A substantial luncheon was served at noon, with Mrs. F. E. Foote, hostess, and Mrs. L. C. Drolette, Miss Addie Parkhill, Miss Katharine Griswold and Miss Maude Bingham, Committee. There was a lengthy business meeting during which gifts were acknowledged as follows: A framed Honor Roll of Cornwall boys in the late war, Red Cross and Y. M. C. A. workers etc., from Miss Marguerite Lane. Vase made from a German shell, with etchings of D. A. R. emblems by a German prisoner given by Miss Alice Easton. Memorial tablet to James Porter, grandson of the late Mrs. William Porter, from Edwin S. Sunderland of New York. Valuable old papers from Mrs. Ida Perry of Brandon. A brick from the hearth-stone of Ann Story's house, given by the late Mrs. Columbus Smith to Mrs. C. H. Lane, and a sword and cannon ball—the latter picked up on the farm formerly owned by Edward Parkhill and loaned the Chapter by Miss Maude Parkhill. A report of the State Convention was given by Mrs. H. E. Sanford and also by Mrs. M. O. Field. Fine music was rendered by Mrs. Claude Towne of Syracuse, N. Y. Items of interest concerning Cornwall's surrender were read by several members. The leading feature of the program was a sketch by Miss Alice Easton of her work with the Y. M. C. A. in France. Miss Easton spoke without notes and held her audience entranced by her vivid description of her interesting experiences overseas. The meeting closed by singing "America".

Worth Memorizing

"If you see a tall fellow ahead of a crowd,
A leader of men, marching fearless and proud,
And you know of a tale whose mere telling aloud
Would cause his proud head to in anguish be bowed,
It's a pretty good plan to forget it.

"If you know of a skeleton hidden away
In a closet, and guarded and kept from the day
In the dark; and whose showing, whose sudden display,
Would cause grief and sorrow and life-long dismay,
It's a pretty good plan to forget it.

"If you know of a thing that will darken the joy
Of a man or a woman, a girl or a boy,
That will wipe out a smile, or the least way annoy
A fellow, or cause any gladness to cloy,
It's a pretty good plan to forget it.

FORERUNNERS OF SICKNESS

Medical authorities agree that indigestion and constipation are the forerunners of half the ills of mankind. Don't let a mass of partly digested decomposing food poison your whole system. When your food is being properly digested, you are free from biliousness, gas, bloating, sick headache, sour stomach, bad breath, coated tongue. Foley Cathartic Tablets, a wholesome physic, thoroughly cleanse the bowels without griping or nausea, sweeten the stomach and invigorate the liver.
